

RFUF SPEAKER SCHEDULE

Fall Semester 2022

Wednesday 10.00 am, Harn Museum and Zoom

- September 7 Curtis A. Reynolds, Vice President for Business Affairs, UF
UF's Hidden World of Operational Excellence
- September 14 Diana Boxer, Linguistics, UF
Discourse, Politics, and Women as Global Leaders
- September 21* Luncheon meeting at Oak Hammock 11:30am.
Rhonda Wilson, Star Center Theatre
An Artist's Journey
- September 28 Joseph G. Meert, Geology, UF
When the Shields Go Down: The Importance of a Magnetic Field for Life on Earth and Other Planets
- October 5 Dulce Roman, The Harn Museum
Picturing the Sunshine State: The Florida Art Collection at the Harn Museum of Art
- October 12 Jon Rehm, Alachua County Public Schools
Social Studies and Its Role within the Alachua County Public Schools
- October 19 Fatimah Tuggar, College of Art, UF
On Crafting Art: A Practice of Questioning Culture
- October 26 Willie J Wright, Geography, UF
On Geographies of Race and Revanchism
- November 2 My T. Thai, Computer & Information Science & Engineering, UF
Explainable AI: The Art of Explanation
- November 9 Robin Lewy, Rural Women's Health Project
30 Years of Health Justice in North Central Florida
- November 16 Beth Virnig, College of Public Health & Health Professions
How Patient Factors and System Factors Influence Care and Outcomes
- November 30 Joe Glover, Provost, UF
Building an AI University
- December 7 Anita Spring, Anthropology & African Studies, UF
The Explorers Club: In Pursuit of Scientific Understanding while Preserving Lands, Oceans, & Peoples

*LUNCHEON. $20.00 (pay at door). Reservations to RFUF-Membership@cox.net by 9/15/2022