

Eric Segal, Director of Education and Curator of Academic Programs at the Harn Museum of Art spoke at our Sept 24, 2025 meeting on “Inventing Museum Goers: the Subtle Art of Making Everyone Happy in the Museum.” The meeting focused on museum education at the Harn Museum of Art, and explored the museum's role in providing accessible art experiences for diverse audiences. The discussion covered various educational programs and initiatives, including community engagement events, partnerships with UF departments, and specialized programs for medical and nursing students. At the end of the presentation there were updates on upcoming exhibitions, renovation projects, and the museum's docent program. Watch the video of his talk simply by choosing the Meetings Page of RFUF web site and clicking on the large date of the meeting. Videos remain active on the website for 6 months after each meeting. All photos courtesy of Saeed Khan.

